NATIONAL CADET CORPS(NCC)

NCC in our college has a long and proud history. The NCC unit was established in our college in the early years of our college and since then, it has been providing opportunities for students to develop their personalities, physical fitness, and leadership skills. The NCC programs in our college are open to both boys and girls. The unit is run by trained and experienced officers, who guide the students in their activities.

The NCC in our college conducts a wide range of activities, including training camps, parades, sports competitions, adventure sports, and social service projects. The activities are designed to challenge the cadets and to help them develop their physical, mental, and emotional capabilities. The NCC programs also provide opportunities for students to interact with cadets from other colleges and to participate in national-level events

BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

"Ikigai: The Japanese Secret to a Long and Happy Life" is a book that delves into the Japanese concept of ikigai, which roughly translates to "reason for being." The authors explore how having a sense of purpose and a reason to get up every day can lead to a longer, happier, and more fulfilling life. They draw on interviews with residents of the Japanese island of Okinawa, who have some of the highest life expectancies in the world, as well as research from psychologists and other experts.
